THIRTY-THIRD
ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

FROM OCTOBER 1, 1895, TO OCTOBER 1, 1896.

The Trustees herewith present their Annual Report of the work of the Hospital during the past Hospital year.

The number of in-patients treated during the year was 1,672, almost exactly the number treated in the previous year. The number of patients treated in the Dispensary was 9,516, being an increase in that work over the previous year of over 2,600 cases. The grand total of patients treated by the Hospital, during the year just closing, was, therefore, 11,188—a number largely in excess of any previous year.

The number of Hospital days of care of in-patients was 40,620—nearly 2,000 more than during the previous year.

The proportion of absolutely free work was nearly 50 per cent of the whole. This is about 7 per cent. less than during the year before. It will be remembered that last year our budget showed a deficit of some $11,000. In view of this fact, the Trustees did not feel justified, at the outset of the present year, in increasing the charity of the institution, nor indeed in continuing it upon the scale of the past. The donations to the Hospital did not seem to justify such a course.

We have never thought it right to be benevolent upon means we did not possess, or at the cost of our creditors.

The Hospital has accordingly felt its way during the year, and we are glad to say that, as the time progressed and increased receipts seemed to warrant it, we have opened our doors again to more needy sufferers, and close the year with but a small diminution of our free work. We trust this statement will convey an object lesson to all friends of the Hospital, to show them that our charitable work and their donations move in exact proportion, and that, if they will come to our aid, we can make our free work the coming year 66 per cent. of the whole. Even that would not satisfy the demands upon us, especially during the winter months, when sickness and distress are most prevalent in a city like Chicago.

We ask those whose hearts are touched by this misery, which they know to be about them, but which they can not personally relieve, to make St. Luke's Hospital their almoner in that regard, and we promise to give a good account of our stewardship. Certainly the donations to such a Hospital as this, in a city like Chicago, should be thirty or forty thousand dollars a year, instead of, as they are, but five or ten thousand.

We are glad to report that, by careful management, the expenses of the Hospital have been kept within its income, during the year just closed.

The total expense for the year was $69,703.25.

The total income for the year was $70,424.07; showing a surplus of $720.82.

The cost of each patient per diem was $1.61, as against $1.72 the year before. In reviewing the income of the Hospital for the year, it will be seen that the earnings from pay patients show a substantial increase. This is undoubtedly due to the increase in our medical staff and to the Hospital's growing favor among the medical profession. The items of church and individual donations also show an increase, as well as the item of supported beds. Much of the credit of this is due to the ladies of the Auxiliary Board, whose unflagging interest in and zeal for the Hospital deserve our warmest admiration.

The income from endowment (rents) also shows quite a considerable improvement over last year; and this, we hope, may, with better times, continue.

No new legacies or endowments have been received during the year. An old friend of the Hospital, Mrs. Thomas Burrows, whose death occurred during the summer, left a legacy of $5,000 to St. Luke's.

Our debt shows a slight reduction from a year ago, and a portion of it being funded, it is more manageable. The effort to raise this debt was temporarily suspended by the crisis of the past summer, but with a brightening in the horizon, must be vigorously resumed and speedily accomplished.

We also appeal for funds to build a Nurses' Home, upon the lot bought for that purpose.

The physical condition of the Hospital is better than ever. Working in an old building, containing many structural defects, we have endeavored constantly to improve it, and to minimize its deficiencies. The plumbing has now been entirely modernized, many new floors laid, and some changes made. A large amount of new furniture has been put into the Hospital and its various rooms and wards. While much remains to be done, the condition of the Hospital is very creditable.

In closing, the Trustees desire to render the thanks of the Institution to the Medical Board, the House Staff, and the Dispensary Board, for faithful services during the year; and in the same manner, also, to thank the Superintendent of the Hospital, and the officers, pupils, and employes of the Hospital and Training School, for their faithful services.

The Trustees, also, desire to again thank the ladies of the Auxiliary Board, for their devotion to, and interest in, the Hospital; and, also, to return the most grateful acknowledgments to all who have aided the Hospital in any manner.

The various reports are herewith submitted, showing the workings of the Hospital in detail.

AN APPEAL FROM AN OLD HAND.

I am, as every one knows, no longer at the head of St. Luke's Hospital. True, I am the Honorary President; but an Honorary President is exactly like the carved and gilded figure you see at the bow of ships. The vessel can get on just as well without it as with it. But even if my impaired strength forced me to retire from the active work of the Hospital, it did not lessen my interest in it; and, until my death, this splendid, full grown creature, which I brought into being, nursed through a delicate babyhood, and a youth full of anxieties and fears, must be one of the dearest things on earth to me.

It is, you know, supported in various ways. It has a certain endowment, concentrated for the most part in the large apartment house called "The Clinton;" but the hard times and the shrinking rents have much reduced the income from this source, and it does not go far in defraying our expenses. Then a certain number of beds are supported by kind friends who pay $300 a year, not enough indeed to cover the expense of a bed, but gladly accepted for that, and the bed placed at the disposal of the supporter. Then there are contributions every year from individuals and offertories in churches, and quite a sum from the annual Charity Ball. The main source of support is, however, the money earned by the care of patients who can either pay in full or in part. It is this large sum that enables us to keep the Hospital open, and to do the very great charity work which we strive all the time to increase. If this was stopped, the Hospital would have to stop. The pay patients greatly help the care of the free patients, and nothing could be more senseless than the cry we so often hear, that we take too many pay patients and that the poor are crowded out.

But the charity work we must do and want to do, and for which we chiefly exist, allows us to take only so many pay patients. We must keep a number of beds always ready for those who can not pay, and, therefore, that source of income can only be so much. We might double it if there was no free work to be done, but we would violate our trust if we even thought of such a thing. It is needless to say we could not do it. Every year, then, we must appeal to a generous public to aid us by contributions, which will supplement our fixed sources of income. This aid forms a large and important item in our receipts. We appeal to the Episcopal churches. One Sunday in the year is kindly set apart by the Bishop, on which in all the churches of the Diocese, the congregations may be asked to help us. We appeal also to our many friends, not of the church, for our work is bounded by no church lines; its excellence and catholicity are widely known, and the high character of our officials fully recognized.

I have made this annual appeal through the pages of the Hospital Report, and I have made it many times before, from the pulpit of Grace Church and other churches. I can not do that now; the pen must take the place of the voice. You think we are rich and need no money. It is true we have a large and valuable property, but just now the income derived from it would not pay the sixth part of our expenses. We are in debt, though not very alarmingly, and this year our income exceeded our outgo, but it was only made to do so by generous answers to appeals such as this. Will the readers of this appeal give it some heed? Will you, either at the offertory in your parish, or by sending direct to the Treasurer, Gen. H. A. Wheeler, Old Colony Building, or to the President, Mr. Arthur Ryerson, in care of the Hospital, or to me, 2825 Indiana avenue, help us in our need, and give us some money with which to do good?

A hospital is no romantic, sentimental charity; it is intensely practical. It takes a friendless, penniless, suffering man, woman, or child, and surrounding them with the best medical skill in the country, and the best appliances in disease, endeavors to restore them to health. It costs money to do this, for such work done in a pinched and mean way fails of its purpose, and is simply penny wise and pound foolish. Will you furnish some of the needed money? The smallest sums are acceptable, for they, like the flakes of snow, make up a very mountain. Give what you can, give cheerfully, give quickly, and may you find your gift increased a hundred fold, when you meet it at the last account.

CLINTON LOCKE.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE AUXILIARY BOARD.

Notwithstanding the depressing financial condition of the past year, the Board of Auxiliary Managers of St. Luke's Hospital has been able to carry out its undertaking to provide sufficient money for the complete maintenance of eight beds. To have accomplished this, in the face of so many difficulties, is extremely gratifying, and it is safe to assume that the Board will easily be able to successfully carry out the same undertaking for the coming year.

In addition to subscriptions, we are further indebted to Mrs. J. Russell Griffiths for $117.80, the proceeds of a charity ball, given under her auspices at La Grange, and at the Fair, held at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Ryerson, $510 was realized; also, through the courtesy of the directors of the Saddle & Cycle Club, who kindly gave the privilege of the club house and grounds for the purpose of a bicycle tea, $575 was added to the fund. These sums of money were applied to the beds not fully subscribed to, and for the purchase of some furnishings for the Florence ward.

The money received from associate memberships was used toward the purchase of Hospital linen. In all, the sum of $2,851.78 has been raised, and it is hoped that the report of the treasurer will afford the contributors thereto the same pleasure it does the Auxiliary Board to gratefully acknowledge the same.

The Board of Auxiliary Managers acknowledges with gratitude the contributions received on "Donation" day, and at other times during the year, and trusts that the interest in the Hospital evinced by many kindnesses of which it has been the recipient may continue and increase.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE SPENCER CRAMER,
Secretary.

Treated in the dispensary.....	9,516
--------------------------------	-------

Total treated in the Hospital.....	11,188
------------------------------------	--------

Number of free patients admitted.....	580
---------------------------------------	-----

Number of pay and part pay.....	1,013
---------------------------------	-------

Total admitted.....	1,593
---------------------	-------

The number of days devoted to free patients, 40 per cent..	16,216
------------------------------------------------------------	--------

The number of days devoted to pay and part pay, 60 per cent.	24,404
--------------------------------------------------------------	--------

Equivalent to..	{ 49 per cent.—19,962 full free.
	{ 61 per cent.—20,658 full pay.

Total number of hospital days.....	40,620

The amount of work done in the Hospital during the past year is larger than that of last year by about five per cent, showing an average of a little more than 111 patients this year against 106 last; the total number of hospital days being 40,620 against 38,818 the year ending October 1, 1895. The amount of free work this year is forty per cent as against forty-eight per cent last year, and making allowance for part pay patients, forty-nine per cent as against fifty-seven per cent of the same work last year. The total cost of maintenance is this year $66,810.28 as against $66,789.01 for last year. The rate per diem shows a reduction of eight cents, being $1.64 against $1.72 for last year. This per diem should properly be decreased by $1,324.26, the amount of material sold, bringing the rate per diem to $1.61. It is also to be taken into consideration that the great proportion of pay patients has entailed a greater per diem expense, most of them being in private rooms, and cared for in away that necessarily increases the cost to the Hospital, both for supplies and for the attendance of nurses and employees.

It has been a matter of very great satisfaction to note the constant improvement of the Hospital property in many permanent ways. The general cleanliness and freshness of the buildings in spite of the smoky surroundings are often commented upon. The alterations made have been uniformly for the better, and each year has found us in better condition, since much of the work done has effected changes of a lasting nature, so that we are able to maintain the standard of excellence with a lessening of expense.

It is also gratifying to note a general systematizing of the work of the institution and the fact that we are able to find workers who are desirous of steady employment and regular habits of living. The majority of our workers are well tried and trained in their respective places and can be counted on to work faithfully, and conscientiously to regard the interests of the Hospital.

We look forward with good hope to the coming year.

The increase in the membership of the medical board and the new departure in the rules of the Hospital whereby physicians not officially connected with the institution may be allowed to treat their private pay patients in our private rooms, have worked together for the very considerable increase of our pay work, and for the general good of the Hospital.

The new way means new complications and added responsibility in the conduct of the work, but it is a change in the right direction, and not only increases the revenues of the Hospital but also opens up new possibilities for good in many ways.

J. W. VAN INGEN,
Superintendent.

TRAINING SCHOOL REPORT.

TO MR. ARTHUR RYERSON,

President of St. Luke's Hospital:

DEAR SIR:—The year eighteen hundred and ninety-six has been an uneventful one for the Training School. We have had a few less applications for admission this year than last. The difference might be ascribed, perhaps, to the change in the money allowance made to nurses, or it may be due to outside causes which we do not control; in any case, the standard of excellence has been maintained, there having been no change in the quality of the material.

Through the year, eight hundred and thirty-two persons made application, either by letter or personal interview for information; one hundred and eighty were furnished with admission blanks, one hundred and five were returned filled out, thirty-four of these applicants were received on probation, and twenty-three were received as pupil nurses. During the year, three nurses were dropped for inefficiency, and one withdrew without completing her course.

On June twenty-fourth, St. John Baptist's Day, a class of fifteen nurses graduated.

The calls for graduates numbered two hundred and sixty-seven, an increase of fifty over last year.

The former "Blue Cross Association," a society which included pupil as well as graduate nurses, has been merged into a very successful alumnæ. The blue cross is still worn upon the left arm, as a portion of the school uniform.

As always, the visiting staff have been most faithful in the performance of all duties which have fallen to their share in connection with the Training School; and through you I wish to express to them my very sincere thanks, on behalf of the nurses.

Very respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE HUTCHESON, Chief Nurse.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

I entered upon the duties of Chaplain on June 11th. The daily morning and evening services in the Chapel have been regularly held. The attendance of nurses in the morning, and of patients in the evening, has been very good. Daily services have been held in the four open wards, and regular visitations made in the private wards.

The holy eucharist has been celebrated each Sunday and holy-day. The number of celebrations in the chapel is twenty-five. Several celebrations have been held in the wards for patients. One adult and seven infants have been baptized since June 1. The whole number of baptisms, since Oct. 1, 1895, is thirty-one. Rev. J. W. Van Ingen administered twenty-three. The burial service has been said in the chapel twice. The offerings at holy communion, since Feb. 9, amount to $14.01; the disbursements to $3.05.

CHAS. T. SUSAN,

Chaplain.
